

The Cabinet of David B.

Secretary of State: Pat, Current position: student/acquaintance
Duties: To help me and the other boys on Mizuno get along with other floors and to be trusted with important information.
Qualifications: Pat has respect from almost everyone on Mizuno and some people on other floors. He is good at making compromises and forming agreements. Pat sticks up for the team of Mizuno in the good times and the bad. He will analyze the situation and then react with the most appropriate mature response.

Secretary of the Treasury: Dan Podolsky, Current position: student/acquaintance
Duties: To give me tips about money in any situation
Qualifications: Podolsky is a very smart man. He has learned all of his ways from his father, who is a very successful man. Whenever I have a question about slurpees, food, or any other items, he is always there to help. He also has a good positive attitude when he gives me advice.

Secretary of Defense: Adam Current position: student/acquaintance
Duties: To protect Mizuno and me personally from bullies
Qualifications: Adam is one of the quickest witted, strategic people I have ever met. He is the exact person we need to protect me and Mizuno. He is funny and jokes around a lot, but when the going gets rough and a defender is needed, he is there. So far I haven't been bullied by peers here at this school, but I have been in the past. Adam will make sure nobody messes with me or Mizuno.

Attorney General (Dept of Justice): Zach, Current position: student/acquaintance/floor leader
Duties: To make sure that every one respects each other and follows the rules
Qualifications: Zach is by far the most respectful kid I have ever met. If there is ever a conflict on the floor he is the first person there to end it. In the Mizuno community he has more respect from the students than some of the staff do. If people are getting picked on Zach will stop it. He understands the need for rules, but doesn't get too rigid about them.

Secretary of the Interior: Chad, Current position: Mizuno mentor
Duties: Teaches us to protect our environment by taking us to do community service
Qualifications: Chad likes everything to be in order and for us to respect our boundaries. He has taken us on pass to clean up Utah Lake and also a couple parks. Some of us are resistant at first but he finally convinces us to go and help the community. I admit it is nice to enjoy the outdoors every once in a while.

Secretary of Agriculture: Amanda, Current position: sister

Duties: To keep the family aware of the food we eat and the environment

Qualifications: Amanda is very nature oriented. She cares about the environment and makes sure that the whole family understands what is good for it and what is bad for it. She will call us out if we throw something away and it should be recycled. We are a green family with Amanda's help.

Secretary of Commerce: Larry Braytman, Current position: dad

Duties: Support the family by using his business skills

Qualifications: Larry is a really smart man. He is good with technology and with business in general. He has different stocks for different companies. He has a good attitude and is professional. With the money he earns my family lives comfortably and they can afford to send me to treatment.

Secretary of Labor: Rich Braytman, Current position: uncle

Duties: To make sure everyone works hard and is treated fairly

Qualifications: Uncle Rich is a very hardworking person. Ever since I have been a little boy he has taught me that working hard is good and will help me in my life. He also explained that if I do work hard, I will get treated better, and have a happier life. All the advice he has given me is true and he is the best man to come to for those types of questions.

Secretary of Health & Human Services: Elaine, Current position: grandmother

Duties: Has taught me to respect my elders

Qualifications: Elaine has taught me the moral of respecting my elders ever since I was a little kid. I spent a lot of quality time with her baking and now we just will sit and talk. She knows a lot about the world and if she didn't teach me to respect all people in general, my life would have been much worse.

Secretary of Housing & Urban Development: Donna, Current position: aunt

Duties: Gives advice on home spending or repairs

Qualifications: Aunt Donna always has good ideas when it comes to spending money for the house, or things inside the house. She is very creative and can find the best prices for anything. My house is awesome because of her. She is the best in the field. Period. We once had to do a renovation and she designed our new kitchen. It looks pretty rad.

Secretary of Transportation: Brad, Current position: friend

Duties: To give me travel ideas and help me get around

Qualifications: Brad has been interested in transportation from the day I met him. He likes planes and he has his own license for a car. Whenever I need a ride he is 5 minutes away and will take me whenever. The radio in his car is also a nice feature. We like to play music loud as we drive which I really enjoy.

Secretary of Energy: Avi,

Current position: family friend

Duties: Gives me energy whenever I need it

Qualifications: Avi is one of the most hyper people I have ever met. He is nice funny and very entertaining. If I'm feeling tired just hanging out with him will raise my energy level. It's like an energy drink but in a person...with no crash. ☺

Secretary of Education: Howard,

Current position: grandfather

Duties: To teach me the importance of education throughout my life

Qualifications: Howard is highly educated. He works as an accountant and he is not retired even though he is in his late 70's. He keeps working because he enjoys it and it gives him something to do. He has taught me the value and importance of education and reminds me of it whenever I see him.

Secretary of Veterans Affairs: Andrew W.

Current position: Kona mentor

Duties: To teach me about the military

Qualifications: Andrew is a Marine and was in Iraq. He is fully trained to kill people and everything. I listen to him tell a lot of stories about his soldier job. I know enough now that I don't ever want to be in the Marines or even the Army. But it is good to know about what is going on in that part of the world and with soldiers.

Secretary of Homeland Security: Josh,

Current position: friend

Duties: Sticks up for our group of friends

Qualifications: Josh is a loyal kid. I have been friends with him for years and he is like a brother to me. If anyone tries to start anything with me or any of our friends he will be there ready to fight. I would do the same on his behalf and in that case we are a unit, of security for our group of friends.
